HELLO WORLD !

I'm Marina, Web Designer and Junior Front-End Developer.
How can I contribute to the team? I have a multidisciplinary, highly proactive, and passionate profile. I always eager to learn from others and help others out wherever possible. In addition, I have experience in different sectors and in different countries, which has made me an adaptable and organized person.
My main motivation is to make technology, design and communication compatible. Does that ring a bell?
